F & T FLASHBACK

June 1982

We would like to take this opportunity to congratulate one of our auctioneers. This man has been with Farmers & Traders just over 6 years. He makes his home in rural Macomb, Il with his wife & family.

Last week at the World Championship Auctioneers Contest held in Regina Saskatchewan, Jack Lowderman placed in the top 15 of 68 candidates. We felt he should have won, but maybe the judges didn't know him as well as we. Congratulations Jack.

UPDATE

Amazing how time flies, Jack has now been with us for 30 years & still to this day we feel he's the best auctioneer around. Many of our customers ask "Will Jack be there Monday?", that tells us right there the confidence & appreciation he has gained with the customers at this market.

We here at F & T Livestock Market want to say THANK YOU JACK & hope we have many more years to come.

I will leave you with a rookie mistake that Jack had when he started here & still makes today. "Carroll, did you bid? Boy, I sure thought you did, bring em' back boys."

Thanks Jack for the 30 years. If you run into him give him your thanks to.
